DETAILED ACTION

1. Acknowledgment is made of a Declaration RE: Experimental Use filed 16 December 2004. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

4. Claims 1-3, 6, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over SAKAI (4,812,211) in view of OPITZ (5,810,987), both references cited in the fist Office action. SAKAI's invention is directed a method for electrodeposition coating of small parts. SAKAI discloses that the method comprises all the steps as claimed (see abstract and Fig. 4) except for the basket is not swing during the curing. OPITZ in a process for electrophoretically coating small parts shows the steps of changing the position of small parts on trays during the curing in addition to the coating (col. 4, lines 46-50). The subject matter as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified SAKAI's teachings as suggested by OPTZ because this would result in preventing adhesion of the small parts.

5. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over SAKAI '211 as modified by OPITZ '987 as applied to claims 1-3, 6, 9 and 10 above, and further in view of Applicant's admission. The difference between the references as applied above and the instant claim is the use of UV lamps in the curing section. However, Applicant admits in page 4, lines 17-19 the use of UV lamps to cure the coated parts is known in addition to oven. The subject matter as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the references' teachings as admitted by Applicant because the selection of any of known equivalent heating devices to cure the coated parts in the curing section would have been within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

6. Claims 4, 5, 7, 8 and 12-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over SAKAI '211 as modified by OPITZ '987 as applied to claims 1-6 and 9-11 above, and further in view of BRENT et al. (5,385,655). The difference between the references as applied above and the instant claims are the type of parts and paints. BRENT shows the above limitations in a method of electrodepositing coating on metal parts (col. 2, lines 58-68; col. 5, line 20 through col. 8, line 61). The subject matter as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the references' teachings as shown by BRENT because the selection of any of known equivalent metal parts and paints would have been within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 16 December 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because of the new grounds of rejection as set forth in the above paragraphs.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

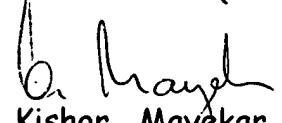

Art Unit: 1753

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
